

The Bryan Daily Eagle and Pilot

Vol. XVII. No. 235.

BRYAN, TEXAS, SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 24, 1912.

PRICE: $4.00 PER YEAR

Marigold Flour HARDY NEWTON

WILL CONTINUE CAM- PAIGN INVESTIGATION

George W. Perkins To Be Called
Tuesday—Cortelyou May Be Placed on Stand.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—The committee investigating campaign funds is planning to pursue the investigation. Senator Luke Lea, hurrying back from the West, arrived early today. It has been practically decided that George W. Perkins will be called on to testify Tuesday. Some of the committee want to recall George B. Cortelyou.

Does Not Like Term Liar.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Aug. 24.—"I am not a liar, I'm not accustomed to being so accused and will not endure it lightly." John D. Archbald made this brief statement today in reply to the Roosevelt charges, before sailing for Europe.

Scope Being Enlarged.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—When the Penrose resolution directing an investigation of campaign funds was called up in the senate today, Senator Poin- dexter proposed the investigation be extended to include all correspondence between John Archbald and members of the senate and house. The amendment was adopted. Senator Penrose asked that the name of George W. Perkins be included with that of Theodore Roosevelt. This amendment was also incorporated.

PRESIDENT REWARDS POLITICAL PET

Named as Deputy Paymaster General of Army.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—The house committee on war department expenditures today reported Maj. Beecher Ray, whom the president yesterday nominated as deputy paymaster general of the army, had been engaged in political activity, particularly in President Taft's behalf, and at various times he was charged with serious offenses, of which he was never vindicated, and was only disciplined by a reprimand.

OPERATOR FOUND DEAD AT POST

Use of Telephone Alone Prevented
Possible Bad Train Wreck.

[By Associated Press.]
Oroville, Cal., Aug. 24.—F. R. Sinclair, Western Pacific operator at Belden, fifty-five miles from here, sat at his key dead of heart disease yesterday while the Oroville dispatcher tried frantically to "raise" Belden to transmit dispatches that would prevent a train collision.

Persistent calling over the wire brought no response nor was the telephone answered. Then the Oroville dispatcher telephoned to citizens of Belden and they hurried to the station and found the operator dead. Incoming trains were flagged until another operator could be sent to the town.

PLOT TO ASSASSINATE KENTUCKY CONGRESSMAN

Object Was to Head Off Certain Proposed Legislation—Sworn Statement Made to Intended Victim.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—An alleged scheme to kill Representative Johnson of Kentucky, chairman of the committee on District of Columbia, so as to head off certain proposed legislation, has been disclosed and a sworn statement was made to Johnson.

Mr. Johnson, who has been very aggressive, says he knows all about it, but refuses to discuss the alleged plot today.

ONE VETERAN SHOTS AND KILLS ANOTHER

Confederate Home at Austin Scene
Scene of Bloody Tragedy.

[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Aug. 24.—James L. Welch is dead at the Confederate Home here and M. B. Tyler, another veteran, is under arrest as a result of a shooting this morning. The men, who had had previous trouble, met this morning and quarreled. Welch was shot twice through the body and died an hour later. Tyler came here in 1904 and in 1906 was sent to the state insane asylum. He returned to the home a year later.

CONGRESS MAY ADJOURN TODAY

Disposition of Postal Appropriation Bill Removes Last Obstacle.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—Congressman Murdock's fight against the conference report on the postal appropriation bill collapsed today when the report was adopted with only Murdock voting against it. Leaders say this assured the adjournment of congress before night.

SIGNED SUNDRY CIVIL APPROPRIATIONS BILL

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 24.—President Taft today signed the sundry civil appropriations bill agreed upon without the provision for the tariff board. The bill carries $112,000,000 in appropriations.

WORKMEN HONOR DEAD SALVATION ARMY LEADER

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 24.—Twenty-seven thousand workmen filed past the bier of Gen. William Booth between 5:30 and 9 o'clock this morning. Many carried their tool bags. The heavy cold rain was unheeded by them.

High Quality & Low Prices

IN

GROCERIES DAVID REID & CO.

Prompt Service and Courteous Attention

Phones 54 and 78

NOMINEES FOR LABOR DAY QUEEN

The voting for the three nominees for queen of the Labor Day celebration, which has been in progress for several days, closed last night. The votes were canvassed this morning and the three highest were:

Miss Addie Walthall.....10,200
Miss Ruth Boatwright.....1,050
Miss Aline Rhodes.....900

These three young ladies having received the highest number of votes, are declared the nominees and one of them will be elected queen.

The voting from now on will be done with actual money—one cent, one vote. Boxes for each young lady will be placed in several stores and everybody will have an opportunity to vote for their favorite. When the election closes each young lady's money will be counted and the one having the largest amount will be declared elected.

The proceeds of the contest will go to help defray the expenses of the celebration.

These voting boxes will be placed at the following places: Princess and Dixie theatres, Joe Korkemes, Vick & Dawson's, James' drug store and Eagle office.

Call at one or the other of these places and vote for your choice. One vote for each cent you put in.

Little Rain at Harvey.
Nath Cotnam of Harvey spent today in the city, and while talking to an Eagle reporter said that very little rain had fallen in the Harvey community, and that the cotton crop would be about half what it was last year.

COLLEGE BOYS TO PLAY HEARNE TEAM

Team Composed of Boys Spending
Summer at A. & M. Goes to Hearne for Game.

A number of the boys spending the summer at A. & M. College went to Hearne today to play the first team of that place a game of ball this afternoon. The party consisted of P. S. Goen, the two Walker brothers, Holly Deason, Ben Youngblood, Perry Brownlee, Ira Brownlee, L. Wright, Jones and Sanders.

The battery for the college team will be P. S. Goen and W. A. Walker. The boys expect to give a good account of themselves and are confident of victory.

SPEAKERS FOR LABOR DAY

W. T. Young, chairman of the committee to select speakers for the Labor Day celebration, makes the following report:

Judge J. W. Doremus, master of ceremonies.

Mayor J. T. Maloney will deliver the keys of the city to the visitors in a ten-minute address.

Hon. W. C. Davis: "The Necessity of Legislation in the Interest of the Laboring Man."

Judge J. C. Scott: "Relationship Between the Business Man and the Laboring Man."

Mr. A. W. Buchanan: "Importance of Organization of Farmers."

BRYAN BREAD

Since our home bakeries have improved their bread so much we have discontinued using Waco Bread. We feel that as long as home bread is as good as out of town bread we ought to buy at home. Home Bread is larger and better than ever before and we are glad to say that Bryan made Bread is as good as any made in Texas.

BELL BROS.

The Quality Grocers

Two Phones

OUR FURNITURE AND RUG SALE

Has been a Great Success. We have sold more Furniture this week than any one week since we have been in business. Many people have proved the truth of our advertised reductions by looking all over town before buying. Many ask the question, what do you mean by selling at such prices? Our only answer is—we mean to have a real big clearing sale and we have made prices that will move the goods. We are going to make next week the biggest yet. To do this we have made still further reductions on what is left.

ODD PIECES OF DINING ROOM FURNITURE

A number of Handsome Rockers, about one hundred medium priced Rockers, several High-Grade Davenport Beds, fifteen to twenty Steel Couches and Davenports, about one dozen Library Tables, a nice assortment of Porch Furniture.

An Assorted Lot of Mattresses Including Some of the Very Best Grades

Several Iron Beds, nothing ever sold like them for the price. Rugs and Art Squares all sizes and description, entirely too many for us to carry in stock. Many are in this sale at less than half price. A variety of Matting greatly reduced to close.

If what we have left is what you want we are sure the reduced price will be a surprise to you. Come Monday to be sure to get what you need

Every Child Should Have a Chair or Rocker at 39c.

E. F. PARKS

Every Parlor Should be Graced With One of Our Handsome Pedestals at the Price We are Selling them.